

PACHINKO BY JIN LEES

Book Club Review:

LONG – could have been much more condensed. Role of woman highlighted that included breaking barriers, such as careers, raising children and sexuality. The commentary is on Asian culture and the historical events of war and isolation. This book one the National Book Award which was very appropriate in that the book educates the reader on experience and situations that we might not be exposed to. Not necessarily a book that the club would recommend freely.

“ In life, there was so much insult and injury, and she had no choice but to collect what was hers”

“ No one is clean. Living makes you dirty“

“ We cannot help but be interested in the stories of people that history pushes aside so thoughtlessly“

WE GAVE THIS BOOK 3.5 OUT OF 5 STARS
